

The Little Spark of Hope

A Special Coloring and Activity Book for Children

By Shu-Chen Jenny Yen

Illustrated by Ying-Fang Wei & JayJay Yang

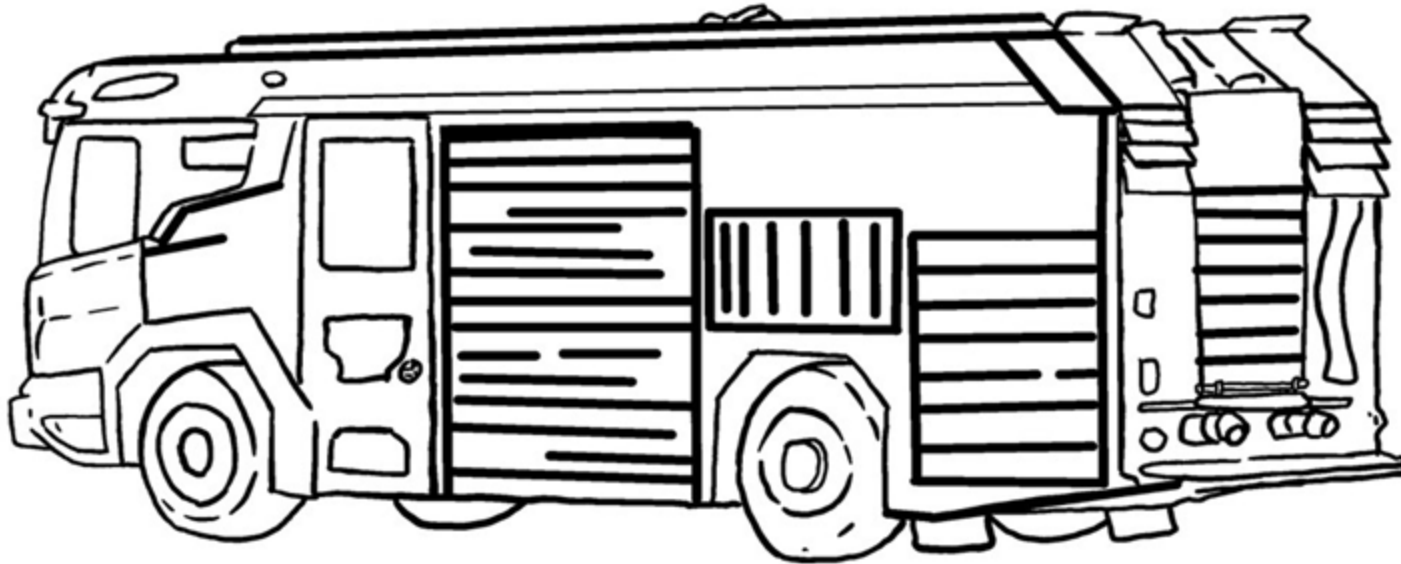

Hi, my name is Bao! Let's color this book together!
Sometimes, fires happen, and it can be scary.
But when we work together, we can be kind, brave, and full of hope.
Can you color me and the fires?

Color the big hose, the flame, Bao, and his friend.

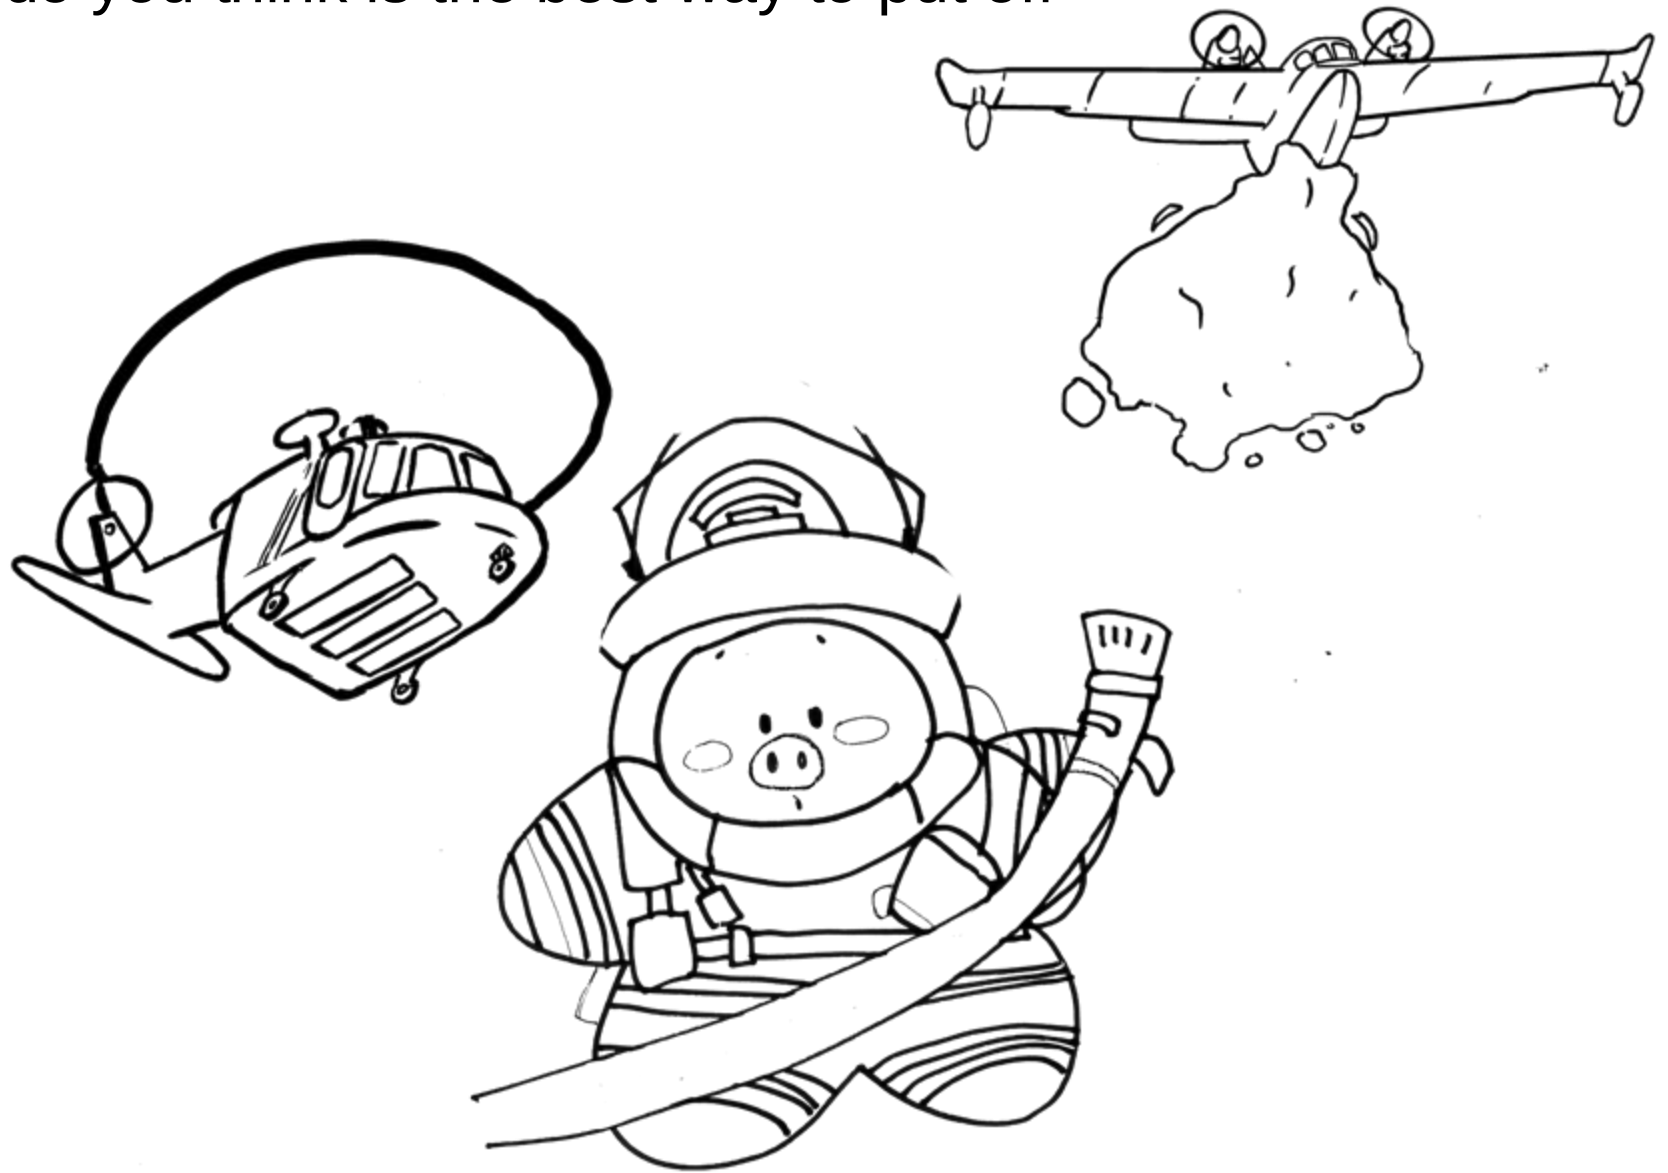

Can you color the Fire Truck?

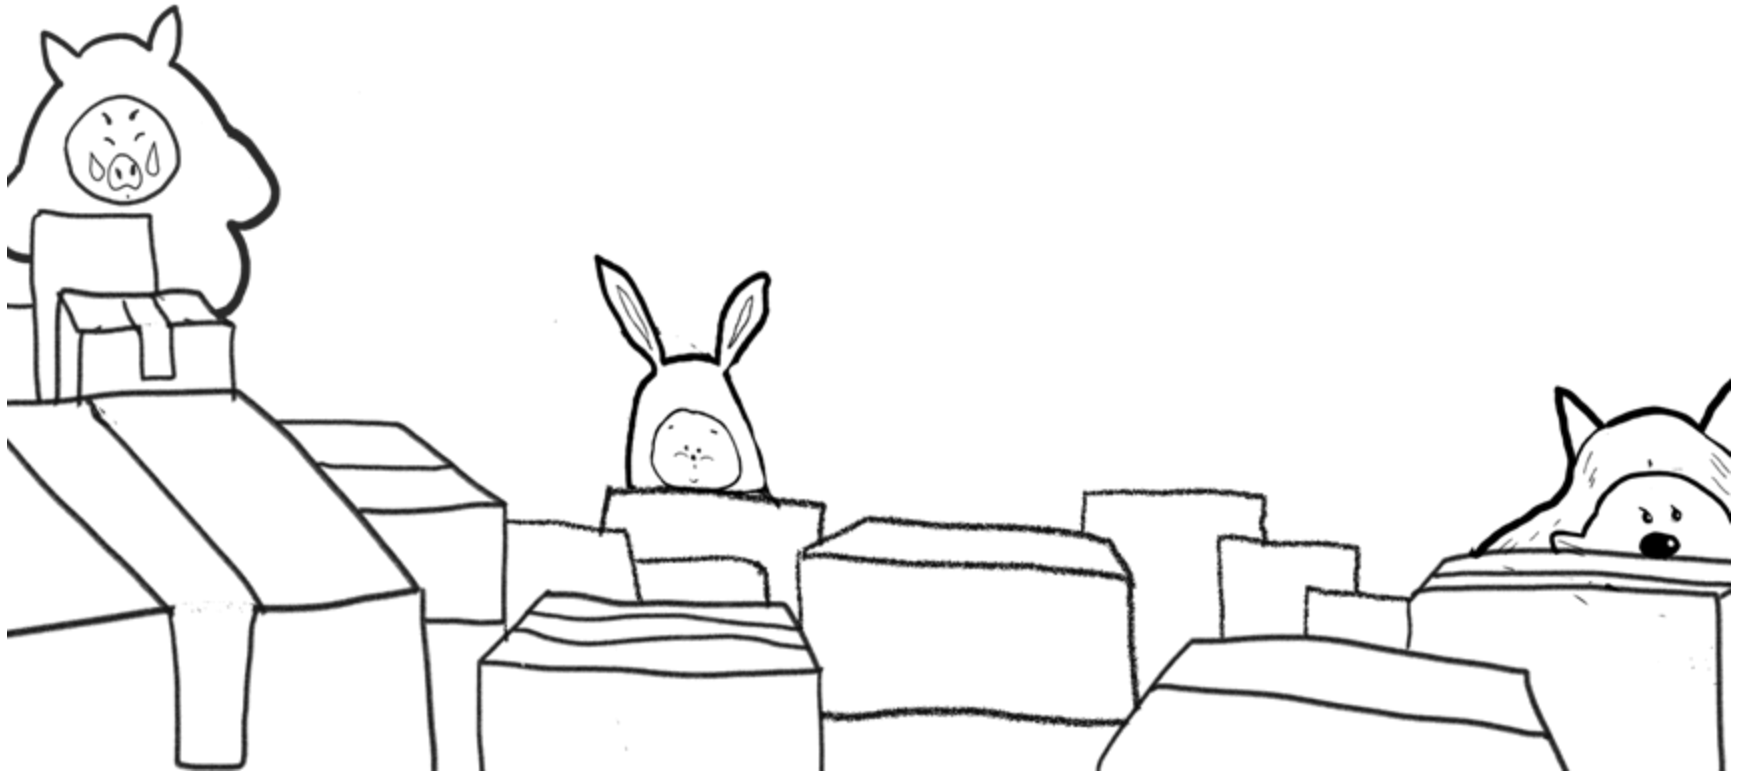

Can you draw the face of the firefighter and color them?

What do you think is the best way to put off fires?

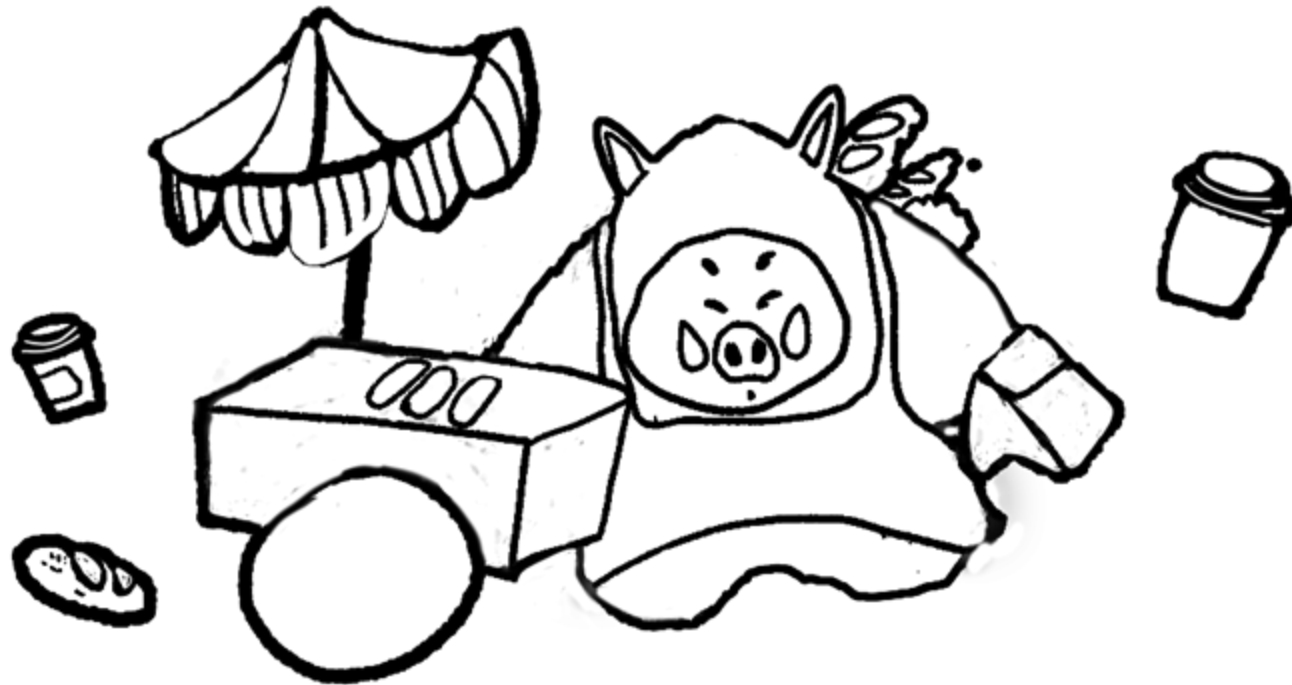

When fires happened, many people hurry to help! A lot of things are donated for people in need.

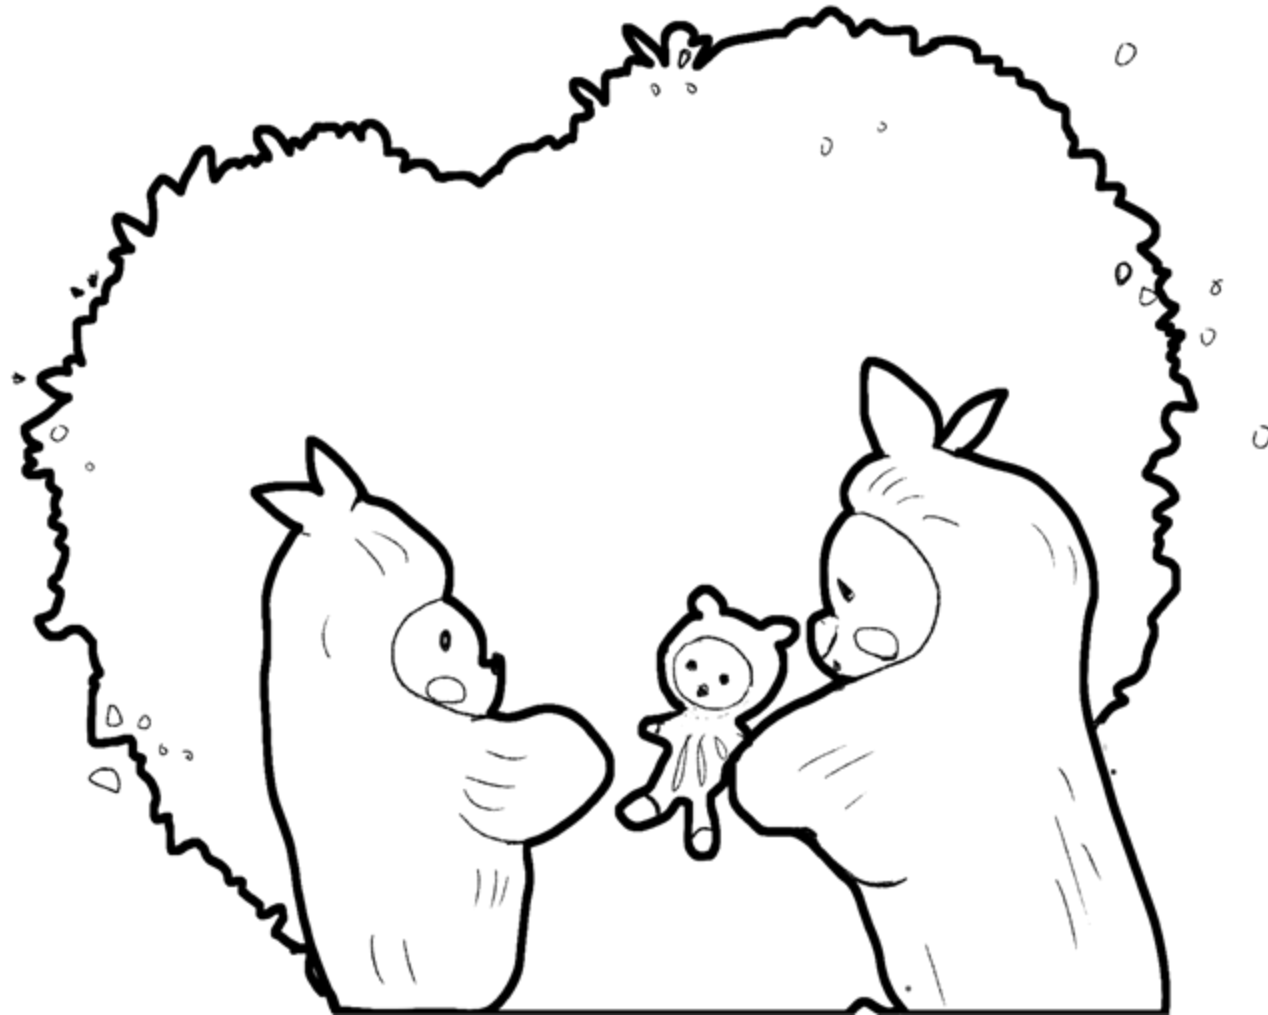

Shelters are available for people to rest.

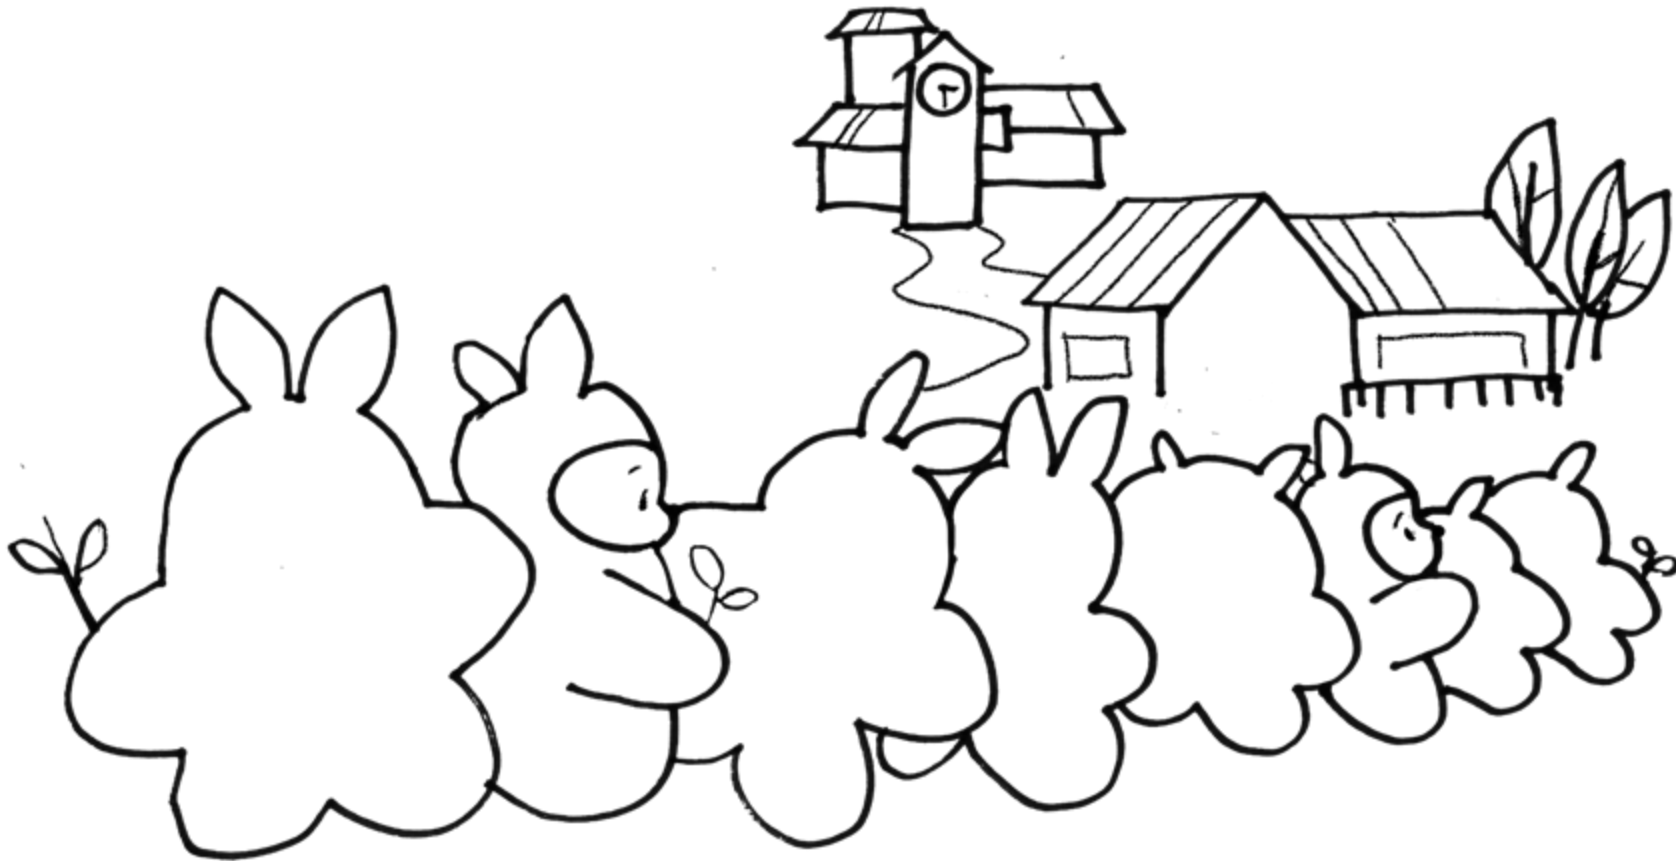

Food are available for people who need them.
Draw your favorite food.

People are nice. Let's be kind to each other.
Color Bao and his friend.

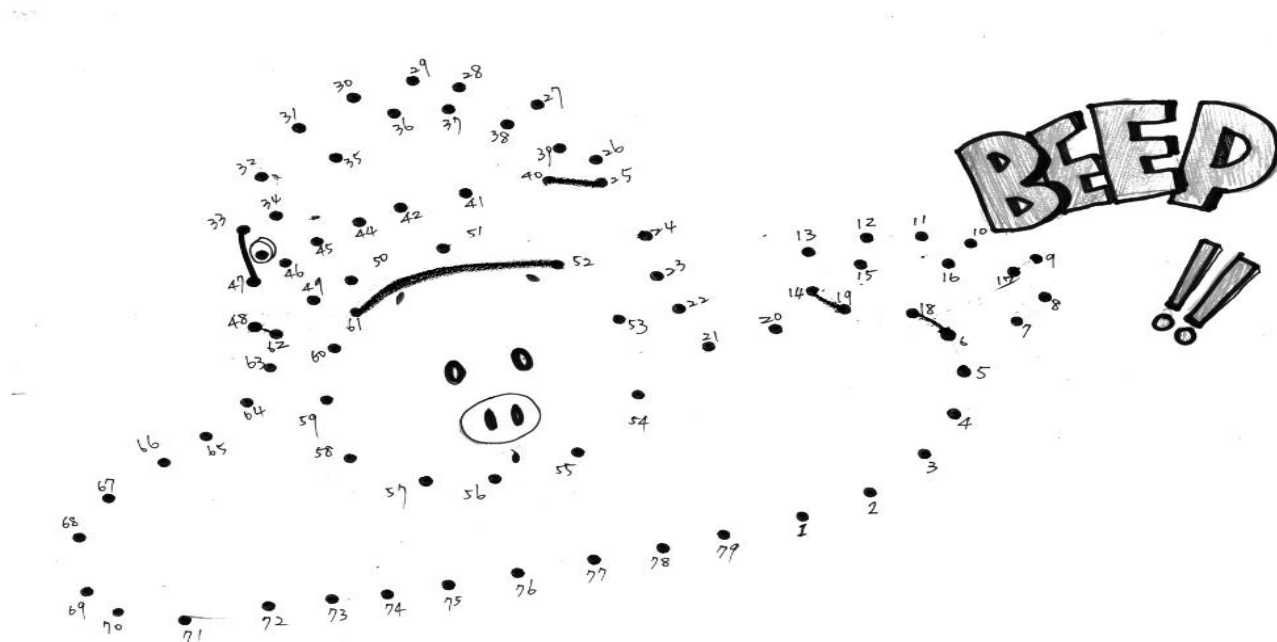

Together, we can rebuild new houses, schools, and playgrounds.

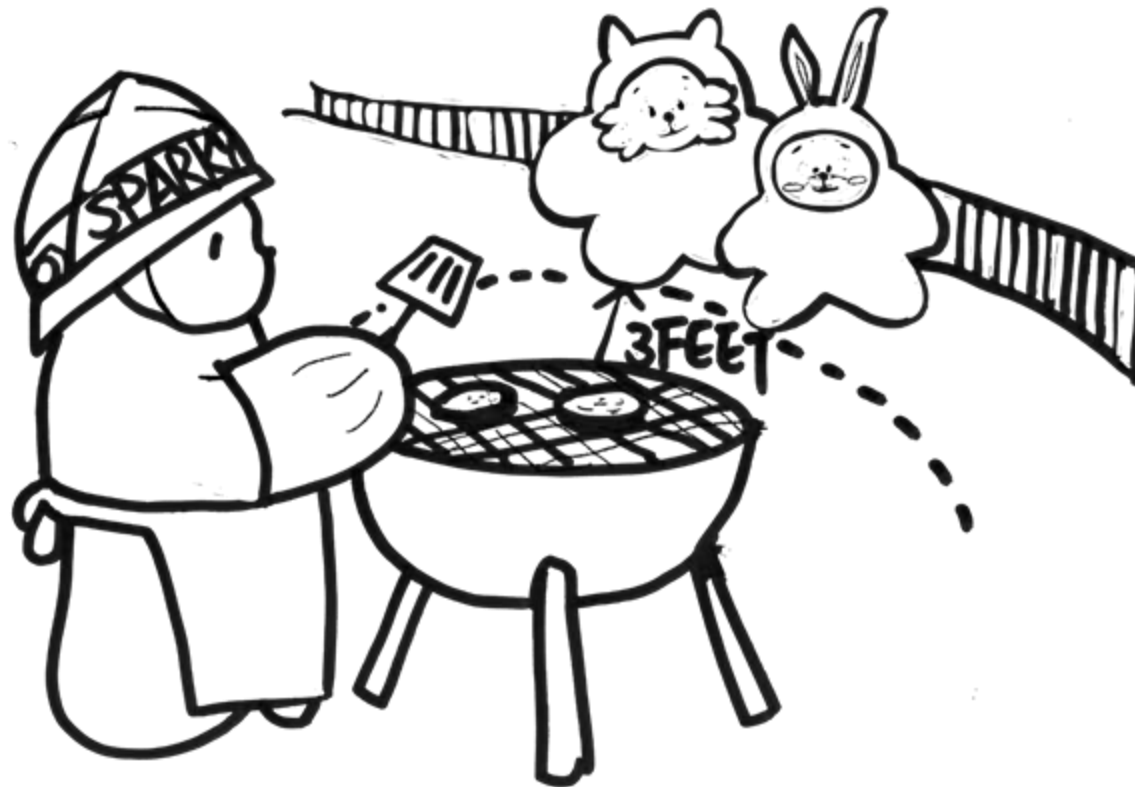

Bao's Connect the dots.

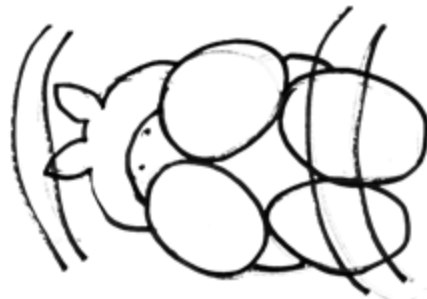

Connect the dots to make a fire-safety picture. A smoke alarm makes a loud “Beep, Beep, Beep” sound when there is a smoke. When you hear the smoke alarm, go outside and stay outside.

Stay away from hot things.
Never play in the cooking area!

If your clothes catch fire, remember to Stop, Drop, and Roll!

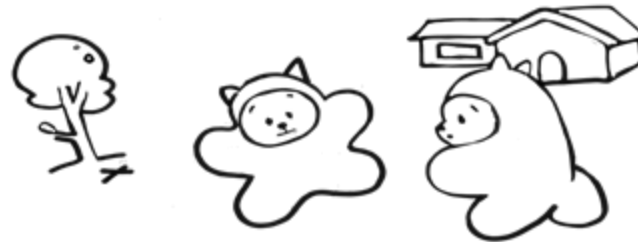

What should you do when you hear the alarm makes the beep beep beep sound?

Can you number the picture in the right order?

GET outside quickly.

STOP what you are doing.
Get up and walk.

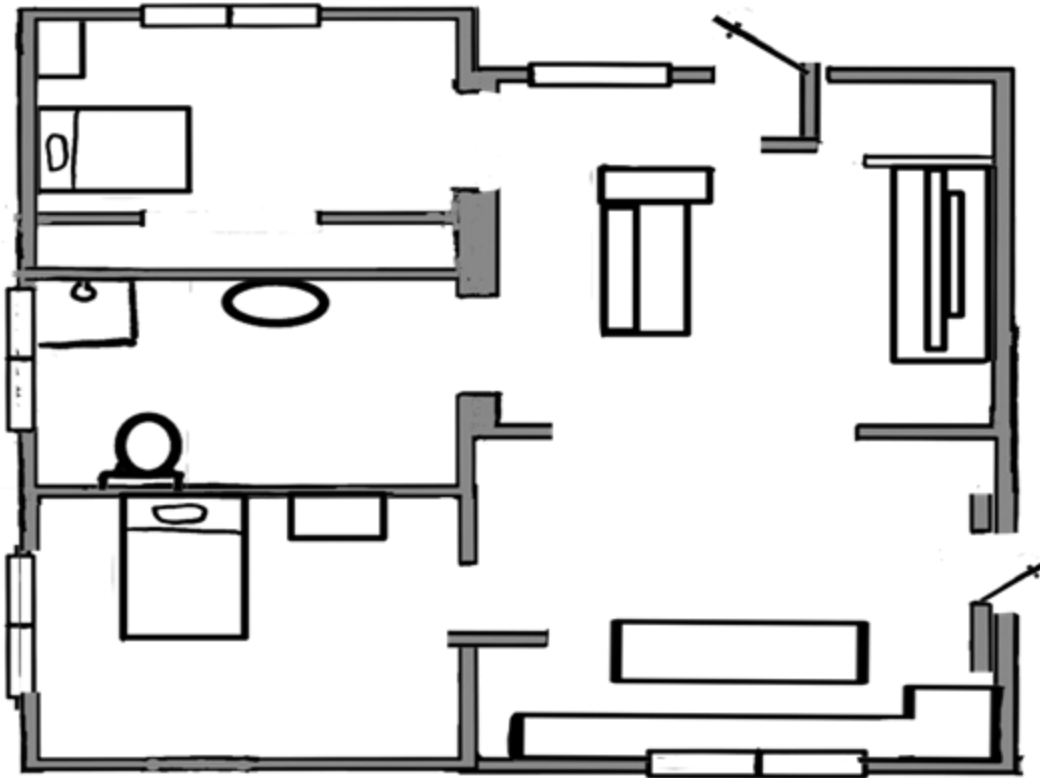

Go to your outside meeting place.

Do you know how to get out of your house quickly?

Draw two ways out and to a meeting place with your family.

Bao loves fire drills!

When he hears the fire alarm,
he stops what he was doing.

He gets in line with his friends.
He walks outside.

He is quiet. He waits in line.

When the fire drill ends, he goes back inside.

Can you write a thank-you letter or draw a picture to thank the firefighters?

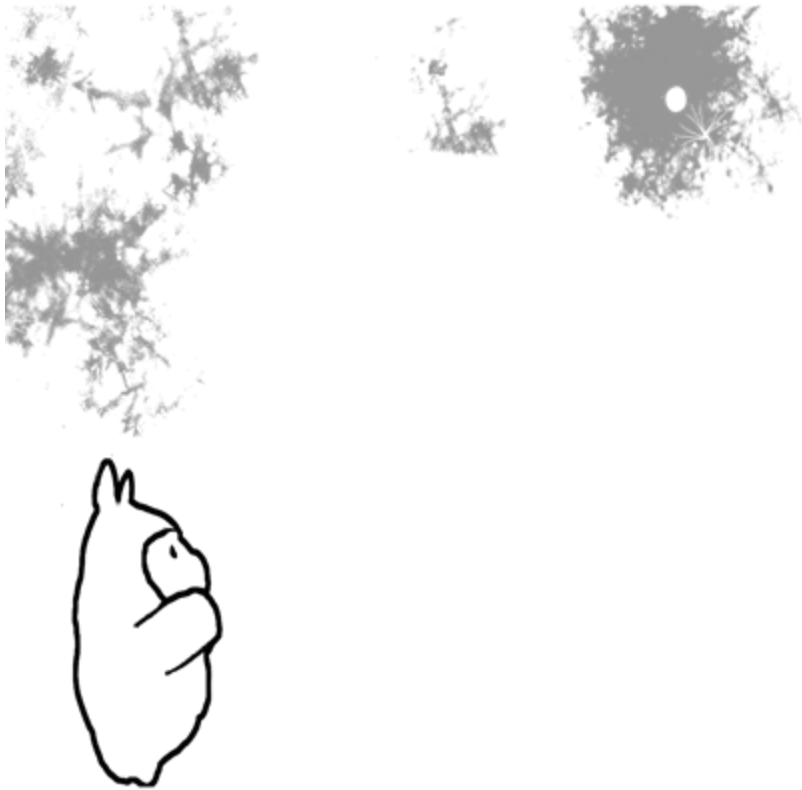

Bao is hopeful.

What does hope look like to you?

Color the sky, the star, and Bao.

Draw something that makes you feel hopeful.

Thank you for coloring this book with Bao!

Remember, you have the power to spread kindness and make the world a better place, no matter what happens.

Together, we can be kind, brave, and full of hope.
